REMARKS

Presently, claims 114-153 are pending in the application. The Examiner has allowed claims 114-153. Due to errors in numbering, a complete, properly numbered listing of the claims has been provided in this response. Additionally, claims 128-130, 132-134, 136-137, 139-143, 145-147, and 150-153 have been amended to correct their dependency as required by the renumbering the claims. Since these amendments are of a formal nature, no new matter has been added to the application by the foregoing amendments.

Entry of Rule 1.312 Amendment

The correction of the noted formal matters in this Amendment is necessary for the proper disclosure or protection of the invention and requires no substantial amount of additional work on the part of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. This Amendment adds no new matter to the application, and merely places the application into better form for issue.

Examiner's Amendment

In the Examiner's Amendment attached to the Notice of Allowability dated August 22, 2006, the Examiner indicated that claims 126-154 were to be renumbered by way of Examiner's Amendment, since claim number 125 was inadvertently omitted in the previous amendment. Thus, the Examiner intended to renumber claims 126-154 to 125-153 (see Notice of Allowability page 2).

Formal Claim Amendments

Upon review of the present application file, Applicant discovered that the Examiner stated that claim "136" should be changed to --137-- and "145" to --146--. This amendment appears to be in error. Instead claim "136" should have been changed to

--135-- and "145" to --144--. Therefore the claims have been properly renumbered and a complete, properly numbered listing of the claims has been provided in this paper.

Additionally, Applicant notes that the renumbering of the claims caused numerous dependent claims to depend on incorrect claims. Therefore, claims 128-130, 132-134, 136-137, 139-143, 145-147, and 150-153 have been amended to correct their dependency as required by the renumbering of the claims.

Conclusion

In view of the foregoing amendments and remarks, Applicant respectfully submits that the claims have been properly renumbered and that their dependency has been corrected. Applicant respectfully requests that these amendments be entered in accordance with 37 CFR 1.312, and the issuance of a post allowance communication reflects such entry.

Respectfully submitted,
